

Materials List for The Daily Sketchbook

The amount of art supplies you invest in for the course is entirely up to you.

I made a list of recommended supplies that I love for my own pen and ink, and watercolor sketchbook practice. Pick what sounds exciting to you, use what you already have, and consider permission to go art supply shopping granted ;)

- A Spiral-Bound, hard-cover Sketchbook, around: 5-1/2 x 8-1/2"
 - Strathmore 300 Series Mixed Media Pad
 - Canson Mix Media Art Book

Other paper options: Bristol or Marker paper, aprx. 100lb (it should feel thicker than sketch paper but thinner than card stock), size 9x12"

- One 2-H pencil

Pens (choose one or all of the three options listed depending on how much you want to experiment):

- 1 classic nib holder and nib e.g. Speedball Standard Pen Nib Holder and a Nikko G-nib
- 1-2 Fine Liners, width: 02-05 brand options: Micron, Staedtler, Copic
- 1 Zebra Disposable Brush Pen - Fine
- Chinese Brush Pen

- 1 Derwent Inktense pencil (color: bark)
- 1 Kuretake Fude water brush pen
- India ink (waterproof) Higgins Black Magic Ink - 1 oz Bottle
- Pencil sharpener
- Eraser (kneaded or plastic)
- Water Brush Pen (fill with water)
 - Pentel Aquash Water Brush
 - Niji Waterbrush
- Winsor & Newton Cotman WatercolorSet (12 colors)

Optional:

Watercolor brush, round #4 and #10

Round watercolor palette with little dishes

3-4 grey broad tip markers (Copic, Faber-Castell,..) Values 2, 4, 6, 8

Email me with any questions at draw@curaoc.com